The MCDA 2010 annual conference will focus on leveraging HUD and other federal resources to weather the economic crisis facing the State of Michigan. In partnership with SEMCOG, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and MSHDA, the conference will identify successful strategies and programs to rebuild and transform Michigan's communities and neighborhoods.

Sessions include an overview of new HUD programs and policies, solutions for low-performing housing markets, re-thinking land use, using the Consolidated Plan for comprehensive community development, NSP best practices, and many more timely issues. Rehab specialists will benefit from training on lead hazard reduction and energy retrofiting.

For more information please contact Ken Bishop at SEMCOG, the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments at (313) 324-3359.
